

All members of the WAPJA are invited to join the WAPJA Face Book page. This is a closed-group page only for WAPJA members. WAPJA membership will be verified by Admin before access is granted.

The page is for all members to learn from and share with each other by exchanging views, and asking for and giving advice regarding all aspects of photographic judging. Also, information on coming events, including training, will also be published here.

FB Membership Guidelines & Rules

To enable a positive experience for our members, we have established some guidelines and rules for participation. Please take a moment to acquaint yourself with these in order to preserve a climate that encourages both civil and fruitful dialogue.

By joining this group you agree that you have read, and will follow, these guidelines and rules.

You also agree to abide by all policies and procedures of the Association. You further agree to post comments on topics that are best suited to the medium. This is a great medium with which to solicit the advice of your peers, benefit from their experience and participate in an ongoing conversation, whilst keeping in mind there are some discussions that are best held in private.

We encourage conversation and debate on this page but we ask that you keep the discussion respectful.

The Rules

1 Be Nice to People

Posting comments is meant to stimulate conversation, not to create contention. Let others have their say, just as you may. This is for you, use it. Share things, learn stuff, and get to know each other. Do not defame, disparage, threaten, or criticize any person or company.

2 Keep it Clean

If you wouldn't show it to your Mother, don't show it to us. And you know what we mean.

3 Commercial Content

Do not post commercial comments. Contact people directly with product and service information if you believe it would help them. Use caution when discussing products or services. Posted comments are available for all members to see, and comments are subject to libel, slander, and antitrust laws.

4 Legal Considerations

The Association disclaims all warranties with regard to information and comments posted. The online group is provided as a service to members of the Association. The Association is not responsible for the opinions and information posted on this site by others. The Association disclaims all warranties with regard to information and comments posted.

5 Removal and Suspension

We can remove any content or information you post on this Group Facebook page if we believe that it violates these Rules or our policies. The Association reserves the right to suspend or terminate membership for members who violate these guidelines and rules. We reserve the right to take down photos, comments and other material deemed "unproductive". This includes, but is not limited to, vulgar language, angry or aggressive behaviour, and posting anything in violation of the intellectual property rights of another. If a member persists in offensive behaviour or continually violates any of our house rules, we may block that person from further participation.

So please, just remember to respect your fellow members.
